

“When one of our students graduates from Tulane and gets involved in the local church, I hope the people will say, ‘Thank you, God, for sending them to us!’ Then we’ve done our job.”

Fr. Thomas Schaefergen, O.P.
Director of Campus Ministry

Since moving into the new Center for Catholic Life, we’ve seen the number of students at events nearly double! But we’re not just interested in numbers. One of the greatest things about having this 8400 square foot facility is that any student can come rest, study, pray, and encounter God and others—and they do!

We’re close to our goal, but we need your help to bring Campus Ministry at Tulane to the next level and ensure it will be around for generations of Tulanians to come! Your gift will not only contribute to the cost of the building’s construction, but also its furnishings, equipment and future maintenance.

Thank you for prayerfully considering a gift to the Renewed in Faith Capital Campaign! Thank you for believing in young Catholics!

Fr. Val Ambrose McInnes, O.P.
Center for Catholic Life

As the new home for Catholic life at Tulane University the Fr. Val McInnes, OP, Center for Catholic Life is a state-of-the-art facility meant to transform how we do campus ministry at Tulane with:

- a 140-seat chapel, heart of Catholic campus life!
- a social hall & kitchen (for dinners, lectures, etc.)
- a large welcoming veranda on Zimple Street
- a modern classroom, conference room & library
- a variety of spaces for study, prayer and fun
- offices for staff to help form students in faith!

A Place to Grow Together

Our Mission is making saints. We provide a place for students to grow together into the saints of tomorrow, transforming the world through their faith.

Our greatest desire is that when students leave Tulane Catholic and go out into the world, they become a gift to the Church and the world. As disciples of Christ they will serve, rather than be served.

Started as a Newman Club for Catholic students on campus in the 1930s, Tulane Catholic has been forming Catholic students in faith for over 80 years. In 1966 the Dominican friars came to campus, under the direction of Fr. Val McInnes, OP. Well-suited to campus life, Dominicans dedicate themselves to study and preaching. In 2009, Archbishop Aymond started a campaign to build a new 8400 sq. ft. facility in place of the previous one which had become, in his words, "woefully inadequate."

20% of Tulane is Catholic

That's over 1400 students! We see about 200 of those students a week. Even though Sunday Mass attendance has doubled since the new chapel opened we still hope to reach even more through personal relationships and programs at the new Center!

"The Catholic Center is an incredible place because of the enormous support it has given me during my four years at Tulane. The countless hours spent here encountering Christ through studying, socializing, and receiving the sacraments have been the most fulfilling of my life."
